POISON IN THE CUP.

DELLOS ZAVITZ SAYS HE UNWITTINGLY GAVE POISONED MEDICINE TO NATHAN GOHLEN—ZAVITZ WAS INNOCENT, BUT WHO WAS GUILTY?

Yale, Mich., April 5.—Nathan Gohlen, a resident of Speaker township, near Yale, died a little over a year ago, having an insurance of $2,000 on his life in favor of his wife. Little was thought of the circumstance at the time, but the neighborhood is now greatly excited over a statement made at the Methodist meeting last Sunday.

Dellos Zavitz, who it seems was nursing the sick man, stated that he could keep the secret no longer, and that he gave the sick man medicine that contained carbolic acid, which ended his life, but that he did not know what the medicine contained until after it was taken. The supposition is that some one who was interested placed it in the cup before the medicine was put in. There will be an investigation.—Detroit Evening News, April 5.

John D. Williams has received the appointment as census enumerator for Brockway township.

The K. O. T. M. are requested to be present on Tuesday evening. Regular Review, as business of importance comes before the Lodge.

April showers bring May flowers. We are having them, the showers we mean, but the weather seems too uncomfortably cold to bring forth the flowers.

Mrs. Brown has engaged a first-class trimmer in her millinery rooms and is prepared to supply the wants of all in the line of spring hats and bonnets. Call and look over the new styles, and give your order early.

With the object of sociability and under the auspices of the Ladies, the Disciples had a very pleasant gathering at the residence of F. P. Currier on Wednesday evening. A number of their friends met with them and refreshments were served to about eighty in all and it was pronounced by all present an enjoyable occasion and a success in every respect.

A number of our citizens met in the Brick Chapel Wednesday evening and organized The Yale Choral Club. The following officers were elected—Pres., Jas. Wallace; Vice Pres., Mrs. E. R. Beecher; Sec. and Treas., Miss Stella Darcy; Director, C. R. Holden. Accompanist, Mabelle Moore. It is hoped that this organization will do much to keep up the interest in singing in this village.

Lost.—On Saturday, March 10th, near Old Brockway, on road from Yale or road to Fargo, a traveling man's hand satchel containing a wool night shirt, dress shirt, hair brush, collars and cuffs, rubber coat and order sheets of Wm. Barie & Son, Saginaw. A reward of $2.00 will be paid for the satchel or information leading to its recovery being left at W. J. McKinney's store, Old Brockway, Geo. Zuelch's store, Fargo; Hill & Locke's store, Avoca; or at Reid & Griswold's livery barn, Yale.

Dr. W. N. Armstrong, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, and member of the O. V. M. S. and O. V. M. A. College Medalist, prizeman, and honorary graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College of Toronto Canada, has at the request of a number of the citizens and farmers of the surrounding country located in our town, and has opened an office in W. N. McKenna's Drug Store. The Dr. comes here very highly recommended having had several years of successful practice with Dr. J. H. Tennent V. S. of London Canada.
